What is Haiku?

Haiku is a traditional Japanese form of poetry that consists of three unrhymed lines of five, seven, and five syllables, respectively. Haiku poems are often about nature, but they can also be about love, loss, and other human experiences.

The beauty of haiku is in its simplicity and brevity. Haiku poems are meant to be read in one breath, and they often leave the reader with a sense of peace and tranquility.

Chicken Soup for the Soul: Valentine's Day Haiku

The poems in Chicken Soup for the Soul: Valentine's Day Haiku are written by a variety of authors, including poets, teachers, and everyday people. Each poem is unique, but they all share a common theme: the power of love.
